

Start-up Business Grant Program Guidelines

The Hamilton Economic Development Corporation Start-up Business Grant Program is designed to support entrepreneurship, which will result in additional business activity in the City of Hamilton.

The Start-up Business Grant program is funded and monitored by the Hamilton Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors who may amend, adjust, or eliminate the program at any time. The grant award decisions of the Hamilton Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors are final.

Scope

The Hamilton Economic Development Corporation has allocated $30,000.00 for the Start-up Business Grant Program for the FY 2019-20. Grants are competitive and will be awarded on a first come first served basis until funds are depleted.

A business plan is required to be submitted with all Start-up Business Grant Applications. Tarleton State University Small Business Development Center offers Business Plan Counseling free of charge. They will travel to Hamilton to meet with clients. Contact information: Amy Wright, (254) 592-1994, awright@tarleton.edu

Applications need to be submitted by 5 pm on the 1st Wednesday of each month to be listed on the next Board of Directors agenda for consideration. Applicants whose grant was denied may reapply in thirty (30) days, if their application has changed to address the reasons for grant denial.

Grants are to be used only for commercial property. If the property is zoned for both residential and commercial use, grant funds and matching funds may only be used for the commercial property portion of the property.

Tenants must have authorization from the property owner to apply for a grant if the project affects the property in any way.

A picture/sketch must be submitted with each application of the proposed project.

The Hamilton Economic Development Corporation may terminate any grant project that has not been completed/purchased one hundred eighty (180 days) from the approval of the grant, or if the business fails to open.

All grants are reimbursement grants, and will only be funded after completion of the project in compliance with specifications approved by the Hamilton Economic Development Corporation. Upon notification from the applicant that work has been completed in a satisfactory manner and evidence has been provided that the contractors have been paid, the applicant may request a reimbursement.

Applications for Start-up Business Grants received within three years of a previous award may be denied.

Start-up Business Grant Application

Start-up Business Grant Applications must be completed in their entirety by the 1st Wednesday of the month to be considered on the next agenda.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (Interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What Is backup withholding, later.
